OPC GOSSIP

Everyone will want to read Florence Gilliam's new book "France" just published by E. P. Dutton. Florence lived for two decades in France and is now with the American Relief for France. Maybe she will take a bow on the 26th.

Randall Gould informs us that he will be going to China soon. John Goette writes that he and Jimmy Young are off to Texas and Mexico with their debate on Japan. Later they are booked for California and Canada.

If anyone would like tickets for the Town Hall of the Air meetings, call the office.

Due to Bill Chaplin's efforts, we are beaming with the following new members:

Bill Down of CBS, now in Japan.

Joe Willicombe, Jr. of INS, now in Paris.

Darrell Berrigan, Editor, New York Post, on way to Europe.

Ruth Cowan of A.P., in Washington.

Sonia Tomara, of the N. Y. Herald Tribune.

Edwin Haaker, N. B. C. in London.

Patricia Lochridge of the Ladies Home Companion.

Ralph McGill, Editor of the Atlanta Constitution, Georgia.

Paul Manning, Mutual Broadcasting System, to be home soon from Guam.

Merrill "Red" Mueller, NBC, Manila.

Morgan Beatty, N. B. C. in Washington.

Lee Carson of INS.

Boyd Lewis, Executive Editor of NEA (Brought in by Henry Hall)

John Lloyd of the Associated Press, now in Mexico.

Steven Fulton of A. P., (Brought in by Hester Hensell)

We would not think of hinting to other members to bring in their friends but application blanks are obtainable at the OPC office.

Prentice-Hall, Inc. recently announced that Gregory Mason, OPC member, and his wife, Ruth Fitch Mason, are "Eliot Taintor", author of "September, Remember," novel about Alcoholics Anonymous, best seller last Spring.

Send in your quips for the OPC gossip.
